In Memory of . . .

Cindy Prass

Mrs. Prass was a friend to us all. She left at East Windsor High School many fond memories. Whether she was dressing up for Halloween or singing one of her favorite tunes, she always could put a smile on a face. Even though she's no longer with us, she's in our thoughts every day. We will always miss you.

Foreign Exchange Students

PEDRO DE AUILA SCHIRMER

Brazil — Florianopolis Island

Hobbies — Reading

Favorite Music — All kinds of music

Favorite Food — Seafood, blackbeans and rice

What do you call a day of relaxation? For a day of relaxation I would go home, kick back in a chair, listen to music and forget about school.

What do you like most about East Windsor High School? What I like most about East Windsor High School is Art Class and PTV. In Brazil there are no breaks all day; here you get breaks. Also, this school thinks that sports are important and they support their teams.

What do you like most about the United States? The movies, music, education and high-tech instruments.

If you had the chance, would you visit the United States again? Yes.

GIULIANO BERGAMINI VANNUCCHI

Brazil — Curitiba — Parana

Hobbies — Collecting beer cans

Favorite Music — All kinds, except for rap

Favorite Food — Shrimp, candy, ice-cream, pizza

What do you call a day of relaxation? On a day of relaxation I would watch TV or read magazines sent to me from Brazil. I also would like to sleep.

What do you like most about East Windsor High School? What I like most about East Windsor High School is friendship. In Brazil you remain in the same class all day. Here at East Windsor High you change classes.

What do you like most about the United States? The music, TV shows and amusement parks.

If you had the chance, would you visit the United States again? Yes.

Dedication

This yearbook is dedicated to Mr. O'Konis and Mrs. Gowdy. Your help, love and support have been greatly appreciated throughout our high school years.

Class Song

*“I Will Remember You”
— Amy Grant*

Class Motto

A tree branches out upon the sky endlessly, towards an individual destination, yet may always be traced back to the roots when every twig began as one.

Prologue

Look on the world as a big fruitcake. It wouldn't be complete without a few nuts in it.

Men should be judged, not by their tint of skin, the Gods they serve, the vintage that they drink, nor by the way they fight, or love, or sin! But by the quality of thought they think.

— Cory Nicolson

A little trust that when we die we reap our sowing, and so goodbye.

— George Du Maurier

Class History

Full of hope and bewilderment, the class of 1993 began the final four. Leading the team through this most difficult first year were Sissi Chhom Prom, Lynette Gorham, Marlene Babula, Chad Roggow and Brian Orefice. The first battle was one of defeat. The pep rally theme, "Have You Ever Danced With The Pantherman In The Pale Moonlight?", was clearly a display of inexperienced players.

After the naivety was overcome, our captains Sissy Chhom Prom, Heather Slosek, Marlene Babula, Jeff Edwards and Brian Orefice began to put forth leadership. A growing concern about the environment inspired the pep rally's theme, "Panthers Recycle the NCCC." The determination of the class of 1993 shined through to reach a respectable third place finish. The responsibility of the final four began with the selection of Herff Jones to design the 1993 class rings.

With two years of experience the team began to comprehend the game. A more outgoing pep rally theme, "Panthers Wipe Out the NCCC," secured the class of 1993 with a very close second place finish. Organizing the strategies of this important year were Gail Mansfield, Sissi Chhom Prom, Marlene Babula, Brian Orefice and Kinsha Williams. La Renaissance was chosen as the location of the Prom, entitled "Wonderful Tonight." The excitement of the upcoming year was felt as Prom King Brian Orefice and Prom Queen Linda Wolfersdorf led the court of Lynette Gorham, Melissa Wyse, Sheri Croxford and Kim Collette to a successful finish.

Undergoing a change in the line-up with Brian Orefice, Kinsha Williams, Marlene Babula, Lynette Gorham and Linda Wolfersdorf, they began a terrific new strategy. The abolishment of the traditional pep rally focused upon another game plan, to have a successful magazine drive. Finally the team had come together with outstanding results, raising over $16,000. The Springfield Marriott hosted a Banquet in honor of surviving the final four. The victory bash continued with an outing at High Meadows.

At graduation the team parted and each went in search of an individual triumph, guided by the memory of a victorious final four.

Class Prophecy

The Class of 1993 had already established its history. After graduation they went their separate ways and began new lives with many goals to achieve. But what will the class of 1993 be doing in 20 years. Nobody knows for sure, but this is what might happen to the class of 1993 —

Marlene Babula will have a syndicated talk show about helping couples on their relationships.

Erin Balf will be married to her fifth husband living well on alimony and still plotting ways to get her sister in trouble.

David Bava will either be on death row or in an insane asylum.

Jessica Bentley will be holding a professional job and driving her Jaguar while her husband stays home with her three little boys.

David Blanco will be cruisin' in his '69 Z28 with his wife and won't have a worry in the world.

John Blinn will be done with the police academy and married with two kids and a dog.

Tracy Boutin will be happily married to a great guy, have two kids, and be a successful physical therapist, owning her own business.

Mary Brown will be attending traffic violation school.

Allison Bushnell will be happily married with two kids and a dalmatian named "Ohio", living in Nerf World, with Friendly's close by!

Carmen Carrasquillo may be a doctor or cartoonist.

Kim Chitjian will still only be five feet tall and striving to reach five feet two inches.

Massi Coe will be playing in his tenth MTV Rock and Jock softball game (held in his back yard) after his tenth straight season with the San Diego Padres.

Kimberly Collette will still be impersonating Paula Abdul under hypnosis.

Jill Cosker will still be working a minimum wage job trying to figure out what she's going to do with her life now that she's finally over Greg.

Sheri Croxford will hopefully be cheering for a real basketball team.

Jim DesRocher will retire from the Marine Corps and finally be ready to start a family (maybe).

Rebecca Dube will be married with two kids and hopefully be successful with the Graphic or Fine Arts.

Jeffrey Edwards will be happily married to Amber and playing the Rock and Jock softball game with Massi and Chad in Massi's backyard.

Betsy Ellsworth will be broken down on the side of the highway with her big green Chevy No-go.

Kristie Etienne will be a doctor in Florida, so she can still get some sun!

Neal Galeota will either be dead or single, live somewhere where he can ski nearly every day, and work second shift on Life Star or in the ER. His girl will be the best and he will love her much.

Lynette Gorham will be president of the law firm which employs Perry Mason.

Ladd Gowen will be an Engineer weekdays and a "Big Boy" cook weekends without his "2.0".

Carly Grandahl will be "traveling" around the world with the Dead, painting and smiling the whole way! She will also have a greenhouse full of rainbows.

Seanta Herndon will be a sergeant in the armed forces and will have achieved most of her goals.

Susan Hodgkins will have a successful career, be married to someone wonderful, and living a happy life.

Betsy Kelley will be somewhere with someone who finally appreciates her, but still doing absolutely nothing.

Kelly King will be general owner of East Windsor Burger King, but for some reason still being paid $4.60 a hour.

Amy Kopinto will own her own physical therapy place with Tracy Boutin and will be happily married to Jesse.

Jenn Kopp will finally have a clue and own her own Graphic's Business.

Jennifer Lafayette will be still working at Geissler's.

Jared Lamenzo will have successfully founded his own colony on Mars with no speed limits for his Ferraris.

Stacey LeBlond will be teaching second graders, own a house, and have three kids and a wonderful husband (hopefully.)

Chris Malo will be found in Borneo conducting field research after being legally presumed dead, or a used car salesman.

Gail Mansfield will be a well known talk show host, in search of gossip. She'll be married in Africa, with a guy from the Zulu Tribe.

Myles Mansfield hopes to be an electrician (radio repair) and make lots of $.

Andrea Marschall will still be figuring out what she'll be doing in 20 years.

Mashanda Mason will be a thirty-seven year old business woman. She'll be financially and emotionally stable with a nice husband and two children.

John Mastrangelo will be six feet under and his artwork will finally sell.

Liv McCollum will own her own pet shop and be managing the local zoo.

Tracie McGill will be a good police officer be married to Antonio Sabato Jr. and have a great family with three kids.

Angela Mickey will be a successful Broadway actress and Carnegie-Mellon will still say she has no talent.

Dina Muia will still be wondering where to go to college.

Elvis Nixon hopes to be an electrical worker.

Shelly Noble will still be living at home with her parents and have to be home by 9:30.

Shannon O'Connell will be on a long strange TRIP with yellow skies and a blue sun.

Christine Onofrio will have finally turned in her license and decided to stay off the roads.

Brian Orefice will be president of Smyth Soft Serv never forgetting to ask customers if they would like nuts on their sundaes.

Denise Parente will still be searching for "Mr. Right" and making endless visits to "The Love Connection."

Jesse Peters will be a successful East Windsor police officer, pulling his cousin Christine Onofrio over on Tromley Road and giving her a speeding ticket.

Sissi Chhom Prom will have starred in at least twenty-five martial arts movies which all received Oscars and made her a billionaire.

Linda Racz will either be a successful graphic artist or a commercial artist working for the Disney Corporation and living in New York City.

Allison Ripka will be a teacher, living in a small town with her great husband, having many pets and a farm of kids.

Derik Rogers will be Chief of Staff of the military.

Chad Roggow will be the V.J. hosting the MTV Rock and Jock softball game replacing the late Co-host Ed McMahon in Massi Coe's backyard.

Dean Shepard will be wealthy and live on the beach in Florida with the girl of his dreams.

Thomas Shepard will have written two smash books, his name will have become famous as a writer and a feared as a businessman.

Megan Simmons will still be figuring out if she should go to college or not.

Heather Slosek will finally get her license and still be in search for Mr. Right working in some smokey bar singing jazz.

Bill Stanat will be a stripper.

Pat Sweeney will hopefully be married playing music for the one he loves.

David Teixeira will be a veteran of the United States Air Force and Broad Brook Fire Dept. He also plans on being married with two children and a full grown dalmatian.

Carrie Thibodeau will be managing her own chain of clothing stores, and finally decide to keep her hair one style and color.

Giuliano Vannucchi will be married to a very rich woman, so he will not have to work.

Greg White will be doing commercials for Nike.

Kinsha Williams will be 20 years older.

Lisa Witzke will be married with two kids, and working as a sports therapist for the Boston Bruins.

James Wheeler will own his own company, in HVAC and will be as rich as he wants to be.

Linda Wolfersdorf will be a successful free-lance graphic designer residing in London. During the summer months she will travel back to the U.S. to pick blueberries at Gilson's.

Jay Wyse will be very happy and successful.

Melissa Wyse will be a retired millionaire after working for Micro-machine commercials for fifteen years.

Prom King: Brian Orefice, Prom Queen: Linda Wolfersdorf Queen's Court: Lynette Gorham, Sheri Croxford, Kim Collette and Missy Wyse.
